Scott Walker and Warren Isenberg review client accounts on a regular basis, with security prices monitored on a daily basis. They work as a team developing strategies and managing assets. Mr. Walker serves as the primary advisor for 86 client accounts, and Mr. Isenberg is the primary advisor on the other 47 client accounts. In addition, Mr. Isenberg conducts extensive securities research and analysis for the firm.

Changes in portfolio holdings may be triggered by several factors including: Target price or full value is obtained on existing holding. A change in the fundamental outlook for a given company or security which casts doubt on our original purchase thesis. For individual stocks, technical price & volume data is studied. Changes in the macro-economic, legislative and tax environment. Changes in Federal Reserve policy and interest rates. Year-end tax-loss harvesting to offset capital gains.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Clients receive detailed reports on a quarterly basis. Graphical reports show client's current asset allocation, and portfolio value versus cumulative net investment. A Portfolio Performance Review provides total percentage returns over various time periods net of all fees. A Portfolio Statement provides all pertinent information on each holding by account. A Portfolio Position Summary shows the quarterly returns for each holding. A Cash Reconciliation report summarizes all transactions for the quarter. Your Billing Summary report shows how your management fee was calculated and the total amount billed.

As custodian, Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. provides monthly statements to client and WFA reflecting all activity in client's account, along with a separate trade confirmation for each transaction.

Clients may schedule review sessions at any time.
